

REMA

The Register of Exceptional Musical Ability

for Gifted, Talented and Promising Young Musicians

Gifted, Talented and Promising Young Musicians:

- Are inquisitive, creative and determined
- Have a natural sense of pitch, pulse and rhythm
- Play and sing with a wonderful sound
- Enjoy practising
- Are passionate about making music
- Create their own music
- Make faster progress than others of the same age and experience

Seeking out bright young sparks...

You can be nominated for entry to REMA by your music teacher at school, instrumental teacher, ensemble director or parent.

What is REMA?

The Register of Exceptional Musical Ability allows schools, music teachers and parents to work together to support inspire and motivate the most promising young musicians in Berkshire.

Inclusion in REMA offers promising young musicians access to:

- Specialist Instrumental/vocal tuition
- Guidance for ensemble membership
- Tailor made workshops and concert events

REMA also provides a pathway for future membership to Academy @ Maestros and Berkshire County Youth Ensembles*

Getting involved...

If you are a promising young musician, or you know someone who is, email these details to the address below:

1. Name
2. Age
3. Instrument/Voice
4. School
5. Music Teacher
6. Time Learning

academy@berkshiremaestros.org.uk

You can also pick up a copy of your Academy @ Maestros brochure (Choir/Orchestra/Guitar) to learn more about the exciting opportunities for Gifted Talented and Promising young musicians in Berkshire.

* Pick up a copy of your Academy @ Maestros area brochure (Choir/Orchestra/Guitar) for more details about how to get involved, inclusion in REMA and information about your relevant Academy and County Group memberships visit www.berkshiremaestros.org.uk and ask your teacher for more details.